Hörmann High Performance Doors Announces Strategic Partnership With Senneca Holdings / Chase Doors in Cold Storage, Food & Beverage Markets

Two industry leading manufacturers of specialty doors join forces to provide the industry's most comprehensive door offerings from one source. Senneca Holdings / Chase Doors' ColdGuard, has partnered with Hörmann High Performance Doors as an authorized provider, offering a robust package that includes cold storage and high speed roll-up doors. The Authorized Cold Storage Partnership between the two companies provides construction and renovation projects the flexibility to entertain alternate Cold Storage barrier solutions geared toward material handling door and dock applications in the United States, Canada and some international markets. This strategic partnership is expected to accelerate growth for both companies in the fast growing high-performance / specialty door industry. For more information, visit our websites:
